IDIOMS 99

1 Actions speak louder than words
What you do matters more than what you say.
He promises a lot, but actions speak louder than words.

2 Back to square one
Back to the beginning after a failure.
The client rejected the design, so it's back to square one.

3 The ball is in your court
It is your decision now.
I've made my offer, so the ball is in your court.

4 Bark up the wrong tree
Follow completely the wrong idea.
If you think I took it, you're barking up the wrong tree.

5 Be snowed under
Have far too much work.
I'm snowed under until Friday.

6 Be up in the air
Still uncertain, not decided.
Our summer plans are up in the air.

7 Beat around the bush
Avoid saying what you really mean.
Stop beating around the bush and tell me the price.

8 The bee's knees
The very best thing there is.
He thinks his new phone is the bee's knees.

9 Beggars can't be choosers
If you have no choice, you take what you are given.
It's a tiny flat, but beggars can't be choosers.

10 Bend over backwards
Try extremely hard to help someone.
She bent over backwards to get us a table.

11 The best of both worlds
A situation where you get the advantages of two things.
Working two days at home is the best of both worlds.

12 Better late than never
Doing something late is better than not doing it.
He apologised after a year, but better late than never.

13 Better safe than sorry
It is wiser to be careful than to take a risk.
Take an umbrella, better safe than sorry.

14 Bite the bullet
Accept something unpleasant and get on with it.
I bit the bullet and booked the dentist.

15 A blessing in disguise
Something that seems bad at first but turns out to be good.
Losing that job was a blessing in disguise.

16 Break a leg
Good luck, said to a performer.
Break a leg out there tonight.

17 Burn the midnight oil
Work very late into the night.
I burned the midnight oil to finish the report.

18 Butterflies in your stomach
Nervous excitement before something.
I had butterflies in my stomach before the speech.

19 Call it a day
Stop working on something for now.
We've done enough, let's call it a day.

20 Cost an arm and a leg
Be very expensive.
Parking at the airport costs an arm and a leg.

21 A couch potato
Someone who sits in front of the TV all day.
Two weeks off and I turned into a complete couch potato.

22 Cut corners
Do something cheaply or quickly and badly.
They cut corners on the wiring and it shows.

23 Cut to the chase
Get to the important part.
Let's cut to the chase, how much do you want?

24 The devil is in the detail
The small details are where the real problems are.
The contract looks fine, but the devil is in the detail.

25 Don't count your chickens before they hatch
Don't rely on something good until it has actually happened.
You haven't signed yet, so don't count your chickens.

26 Don't put all your eggs in one basket
Don't risk everything on one plan.
Apply to three universities, don't put all your eggs in one basket.

27 A double-edged sword
Something with a good side and a bad side.
Working from home is a double-edged sword.

28 The early bird catches the worm
The person who acts first gets the advantage.
Tickets go fast, so the early bird catches the worm.

29 Easier said than done
It sounds simple but it is hard in practice.
Just stop worrying? Easier said than done.

30 The elephant in the room
An obvious problem that nobody wants to talk about.
Nobody mentioned the money, the elephant in the room.

31 Every cloud has a silver lining
Every bad situation has something good in it.
The flight was cancelled, but every cloud has a silver lining, we got a free hotel.

32 Get cold feet
Become too nervous to do something you planned.
He got cold feet the night before the wedding.

33 Get the hang of something
Learn how to do something after a bit of practice.
Give it a week and you'll get the hang of it.

34 Get your act together
Start organising yourself and behaving properly.
If he doesn't get his act together, he'll fail.

35 Go bananas (lose control)
Get wildly excited or very angry.
The crowd went bananas at the last goal.

36 Go down a rabbit hole
Get lost in something complicated for a long time.
I went down a rabbit hole reading about volcanoes.

37 Go pear-shaped
Go badly wrong.
The whole trip went pear-shaped on day two.

38 Go with the flow
Accept the situation and do what others are doing.
There's no plan tonight, we'll just go with the flow.

39 The grass is always greener on the other side
Other people's situations always look better than yours.
She misses her old job, but the grass is always greener.

40 A grey area
A situation where the rules are not clear.
Working from abroad is a bit of a grey area.

41 Have a chip on your shoulder
Stay angry about something unfair that happened to you.
He's had a chip on his shoulder since they passed him over.

42 Have a lot on your plate
Have a lot of work or problems to deal with.
Ask someone else, she's got a lot on her plate.

43 Have bigger fish to fry
Have more important things to deal with.
He won't mind, he's got bigger fish to fry.

44 Have second thoughts
Start to doubt a decision you made.
I'm having second thoughts about the flat.

45 Have your head in the clouds
Dreaming instead of dealing with real life.
He's lovely, but his head is always in the clouds.

46 Hit the ground running
Start something fast and well.
She hit the ground running in the new job.

47 Hit the nail on the head
Say exactly the right thing about a problem.
You've hit the nail on the head, it's a money problem.

48 Hit the sack (go to bed)
Go to bed.
I'm shattered, I'm going to hit the sack.

49 In the long run
Over a long period of time in the future.
Walking to work saves money in the long run.

50 In two minds
Undecided about something.
I'm in two minds about taking the job.

51 It takes two to tango
Both people are responsible, not just one.
Don't blame her alone, it takes two to tango.

52 Jump on the bandwagon
Join something only because it has become popular.
Everyone jumped on the padel bandwagon last year.

53 Kick the bucket
Die, or stop working, said jokingly.
The old car finally kicked the bucket.

54 The last straw
The final small thing you can take.
The late message was the last straw.

55 Let the cat out of the bag
Give away a secret by accident.
He let the cat out of the bag about the party.

56 Make ends meet
Earn just enough money to pay for what you need.
With two kids, they're struggling to make ends meet.

57 Miss the boat
Lose a chance because you were too slow.
Book now or you'll miss the boat.

58 No pain, no gain
You have to suffer a little to get results.
My legs are killing me, but no pain, no gain.

59 Not my cup of tea
Not something you enjoy.
Horror films are not my cup of tea.

60 Not the sharpest tool in the shed
Not very clever, said kindly.
Lovely lad, just not the sharpest tool in the shed.

61 Off the top of my head
Without checking or thinking carefully.
Off the top of my head, I'd say about forty people came.

62 On the fence
Unable to decide between two sides.
I'm still on the fence about moving abroad.

63 On the same page
In agreement, understanding things the same way.
Before we start, let's make sure we're on the same page.

64 On the tip of my tongue
You almost remember a word but can't quite say it.
His name is on the tip of my tongue.

65 Once in a blue moon
Very rarely.
We see each other once in a blue moon.

66 Out of sight, out of mind
You forget about things you cannot see.
I put the biscuits in the cupboard, out of sight, out of mind.

67 Out of the blue
Suddenly and unexpectedly.
She called me out of the blue after ten years.

68 Over the moon
Absolutely delighted.
She was over the moon with the result.

69 A pain in the neck
Something or someone annoying.
Filling in these forms is a pain in the neck.

70 A piece of cake
Very easy.
The exam was a piece of cake.

71 Play it by ear
Decide as you go, without a fixed plan.
We've booked the flights, the rest we'll play by ear.

72 Practice makes perfect
You improve at something by doing it repeatedly.
Keep speaking every day, practice makes perfect.

73 Pull out all the stops
Make every possible effort.
They pulled out all the stops for the wedding.

74 Pull someone's leg
Joke with someone by telling them something untrue.
Relax, I'm only pulling your leg.

75 Put your foot in it
Say something embarrassing or tactless by accident.
I asked about his wife, then really put my foot in it.

76 Raining cats and dogs
Raining extremely hard.
Take a coat, it's raining cats and dogs.

77 A red herring
A detail that leads you away from the truth.
The missing key turned out to be a red herring.

78 Ring a bell
Sound familiar.
That name rings a bell, but I can't place her.

79 Saved by the bell
Rescued at the very last second.
The phone rang and I was saved by the bell.

80 A slippery slope
A small bad step that leads to much worse things.
Skipping one class is a slippery slope.

81 Spill the beans
Tell a secret.
Come on, spill the beans, what did she say?

82 Steal someone's thunder
Take the attention that should have been theirs.
She announced it first and stole his thunder.

83 Stick to your guns
Refuse to change your opinion or decision.
They pushed him hard, but he stuck to his guns.

84 A storm in a teacup
A lot of fuss about something unimportant.
The whole argument was a storm in a teacup.

85 Take a rain check
Say no for now but yes another time.
I'll take a rain check on dinner, I'm exhausted.

86 Take it with a pinch of salt
Don't believe it completely.
He exaggerates, so take it with a pinch of salt.

87 Like talking to a brick wall
A completely pointless conversation.
Asking him to listen is like talking to a brick wall.

88 There's no use crying over spilt milk
There is no point being upset about something you can't change.
The car's sold now, no use crying over spilt milk.

89 Through thick and thin
In good times and bad.
They have stayed together through thick and thin.

90 Throw in the towel
Give up.
After three rejections he threw in the towel.

91 Throw someone under the bus
Blame someone else to save yourself.
He threw his own team under the bus in the meeting.

92 The tip of the iceberg
The small visible part of a much bigger problem.
Those complaints are just the tip of the iceberg.

93 Touch wood
Said to avoid bad luck after talking about good luck.
I've never broken a bone, touch wood.

94 Under the weather
Slightly ill.
She's a bit under the weather today.

95 When in Rome, do as the Romans do
Follow the local customs when you are somewhere new.
They eat at ten here, so when in Rome, do as the Romans do.

96 When it rains, it pours
Bad things tend to happen all at once.
The boiler broke, then the car died. When it rains, it pours.

97 When pigs fly
Never going to happen.
He'll tidy his room when pigs fly.

98 You can't have your cake and eat it
You can't have two good things that don't go together.
You want the money and the free time? You can't have your cake and eat it.

99 You reap what you sow
You get the results of your own actions.
He was rude to everyone for years, and you reap what you sow.

SIMILES 30

1 Like a broken record
Saying the same thing over and over.
I sound like a broken record, but please lock the door.

2 Like a bull in a china shop
Clumsy and careless with delicate things.
He came in like a bull in a china shop.

3 Like a deer in the headlights
Frozen, with no idea what to do.

5 As blind as a bat
Can hardly see anything.
Without my glasses I'm as blind as a bat.

6 As busy as a bee
Working non-stop.
He's been as busy as a bee since the baby arrived.

7 As clear as mud
Not clear at all.
His explanation was as clear as mud.

8 As cool as a cucumber
Completely calm when other people would panic.
She was as cool as a cucumber in the interview.

9 As dry as a bone
Completely dry.
The garden is as dry as a bone.

10 As easy as pie
Very easy once you know how.
After the second time it's as easy as pie.

11 Eat like a horse
Eat a huge amount.
He's skinny, but he eats like a horse.

12 Fight like cat and dog
Argue constantly.
Those two fight like cat and dog, then go for coffee.

13 As fit as a fiddle
In excellent health.
At seventy he's still as fit as a fiddle.

14 Go down like a lead balloon
Be received really badly.
My joke went down like a lead balloon.

15 As good as gold
Very well behaved.
The kids were as good as gold all afternoon.

16 As happy as Larry
Perfectly content with very little.
Give him a sandwich and he's as happy as Larry.

17 Like herding cats
Impossible to organise.
Teaching them on a Friday is like herding cats.

18 As light as a feather
Weighing almost nothing.
Pick it up, it's as light as a feather.

19 As mad as a hatter
Completely crazy, in a harmless funny way.
Her uncle is as mad as a hatter and we love him for it.

20 As old as the hills
Extremely old, and everyone has heard it before.
That joke is as old as the hills.

21 As quiet as a mouse
Making no sound at all.
She sat as quiet as a mouse at the back.

22 As right as rain
Perfectly fine again after feeling bad.
A cup of tea and I'll be as right as rain.

23 Run around like a headless chicken
Rush about in a panic with no plan.
He spent the morning running around like a headless chicken.

24 As sick as a dog
Very ill indeed.
I was as sick as a dog all weekend.

25 Sleep like a log
Sleep deeply and never move.
I walked all day and slept like a log.

26 Spread like wildfire
Travel incredibly fast, usually news.
The rumour spread like wildfire.

27 As stubborn as a mule
Refusing to change your mind.
Don't argue with him, he's as stubborn as a mule.

28 Like two peas in a pod
Two people who are very alike.
Those two are like two peas in a pod.

29 Like watching paint dry
Unbelievably boring.
That meeting was like watching paint dry.

30 As white as a sheet
Pale with shock or fear.
She read the message and went as white as a sheet.
