IDIOMS 225

1 Actions speak louder than words
What you do matters more than what you say.
He promises a lot, but actions speak louder than words.

2 Ants in your pants
Completely unable to sit still.
The children had ants in their pants all morning.

3 The apple of your eye
The person you love and are proudest of.
That car is the apple of his eye.

4 Back to square one
Back to the beginning after a failure.
The client rejected the design, so it's back to square one.

5 A bad apple
The one person who spoils a good group.
Every office has one bad apple.

6 The ball is in your court
It is your decision now.
I've made my offer, so the ball is in your court.

7 A ballpark figure
A rough estimate, usually of a number or a cost.
At a ballpark figure, about three thousand.

8 Bark up the wrong tree
Follow completely the wrong idea.
If you think I took it, you're barking up the wrong tree.

9 Be snowed under
Have far too much work.
She's snowed under with marking.

10 Be up in the air
Still uncertain, not decided.
The date is up in the air until he answers.

11 Beat around the bush
Avoid saying what you really mean.
Stop beating around the bush and tell me the price.

12 The bee's knees
The very best thing there is.
She thinks that cafe is the bee's knees.

13 Beggars can't be choosers
If you have no choice, you take what you are given.
It's a tiny flat, but beggars can't be choosers.

14 Bend over backwards
Try extremely hard to help someone.
She bent over backwards to get us a table.

15 The best of both worlds
A situation where you get the advantages of two things.
Working two days at home is the best of both worlds.

16 Better late than never
Doing something late is better than not doing it.
He apologised after a year, but better late than never.

17 Better safe than sorry
It is wiser to be careful than to take a risk.
Take an umbrella, better safe than sorry.

18 Between a rock and a hard place
Stuck between two bad choices.
I'm between a rock and a hard place here.

19 Birds of a feather flock together
Similar people choose each other's company.
Those two are never apart, birds of a feather flock together.

20 Bite off more than you can chew
Take on more than you can manage.
I bit off more than I could chew with that course.

21 Bite the bullet
Accept something unpleasant and get on with it.
We bit the bullet and told him the truth.

22 A bitter pill to swallow
An unpleasant fact you have to accept.
The pay cut was a bitter pill to swallow.

23 The black sheep
The family member who does not fit.
He's always been the black sheep.

24 A blessing in disguise
Something that seems bad at first but turns out to be good.
Losing that job was a blessing in disguise.

25 Blood is thicker than water
Family matters more than other relationships.
She took her sister's side, blood is thicker than water.

26 Blow your own trumpet
Praise yourself to everyone.
I don't like to blow my own trumpet, but I did win.

27 The bottom line
The one fact that matters once everything else is stripped away.
The bottom line is that nobody wants to pay for it.

28 Bread and butter
Your main and most reliable income.
Repairs are the bread and butter of the business.

29 Break a leg
Good luck, said to a performer.
Break a leg at the audition.

30 A bucket list
The things you want to do before you die.
Iceland is right at the top of my bucket list.

31 Burn the candle at both ends
Exhaust yourself with early starts and late nights.
You can't burn the candle at both ends for long.

32 Burn the midnight oil
Work very late into the night.
I burned the midnight oil to finish the report.

33 Burn your bridges
Damage a relationship so badly that you cannot go back.
He burnt his bridges on the way out of that company.

34 Bury the hatchet
Agree to stop arguing and move on.
It's time to bury the hatchet and talk.

35 Bury your head in the sand
Refuse to face a problem.
You can't bury your head in the sand forever.

36 Butterflies in your stomach
Nervous excitement before something.
I had butterflies in my stomach before the speech.

37 By the skin of your teeth
Only just, with nothing to spare.
He passed by the skin of his teeth.

38 Call it a day
Stop working on something for now.
At six o'clock we called it a day.

39 Chalk and cheese
Completely different from each other.
As sisters go, they're chalk and cheese.

40 Come out of your shell
Become less shy.
He's really come out of his shell this year.

41 Come rain or shine
Whatever happens, without fail.
She walks the dog, come rain or shine.

42 Cost an arm and a leg
Be very expensive.
Parking at the airport costs an arm and a leg.

43 A couch potato
Someone who sits in front of the TV all day.
He's a couch potato at the weekend.

44 Cross that bridge when we come to it
Deal with that problem if it happens.
Let's cross that bridge when we come to it.

45 Cut to the chase
Get to the important part.
Let's cut to the chase, how much do you want?

46 A dark horse
Someone with a surprising talent nobody knew about.
She won the quiz, the dark horse.

47 A deep dive
A detailed examination of something.
She did a deep dive into why the costs went up.

48 The devil is in the detail
The small details are where the real problems are.
The contract looks fine, but the devil is in the detail.

49 Don't count your chickens before they hatch
Don't rely on something good until it has actually happened.
You haven't signed yet, so don't count your chickens.

50 Don't look a gift horse in the mouth
Do not find fault with a present.
Take it, don't look a gift horse in the mouth.

51 Don't put all your eggs in one basket
Don't risk everything on one plan.
Apply to three universities, don't put all your eggs in one basket.

52 A double-edged sword
Something with a good side and a bad side.
Working from home is a double-edged sword.

53 Drop the ball
Fail to do something you were responsible for.
I dropped the ball on the invoices last month.

54 The early bird catches the worm
The person who acts first gets the advantage.
Tickets go fast, so the early bird catches the worm.

55 Easier said than done
It sounds simple but it is hard in practice.
Just stop worrying? Easier said than done.

56 The elephant in the room
An obvious problem that nobody wants to talk about.
Nobody mentioned the money, the elephant in the room.

57 Every cloud has a silver lining
Every bad situation has something good in it.
The flight was cancelled, but every cloud has a silver lining, we got a free hotel.

58 Face the music
Accept the consequences of what you did.
Time to face the music and tell them.

59 Fight a losing battle
Keep trying when you cannot possibly win.
I'm fighting a losing battle with this garden.

60 The final nail in the coffin
The thing that finishes something off.
The fine was the final nail in the coffin.

61 A frog in your throat
A voice that has gone croaky.
He had a frog in his throat all through the speech.

62 A game changer
Something that changes a situation completely.
The new software has been a game changer for the team.

63 Get cold feet
Become too nervous to do something you planned.
I got cold feet and cancelled the interview.

64 Get something off your chest
Say what has been worrying you.
I needed to get it off my chest.

65 Get the hang of something
Learn how to do something after a bit of practice.
She got the hang of the software in a day.

66 Get the wrong end of the stick
Misunderstand completely.
You've got the wrong end of the stick.

67 Get your act together
Start organising yourself and behaving properly.
If he doesn't get his act together, he'll fail.

68 Get your ducks in a row
Get everything organised before you start.
She got her ducks in a row before the meeting.

69 Give someone the cold shoulder
Deliberately ignore someone you know.
I said hello and got the cold shoulder.

70 Give them an inch and they'll take a mile
Small concessions get taken advantage of.
Give him an inch and he'll take a mile.

71 The glass ceiling
The invisible barrier that stops women reaching the top jobs.
They talk about diversity, but the glass ceiling is still there.

72 Go bananas
Get wildly excited or very angry.
My dad went bananas when he saw the bill.

73 Go down a rabbit hole
Get lost in something complicated for a long time.
I went down a rabbit hole reading about volcanoes.

74 Go pear-shaped
Go badly wrong.
The whole trip went pear-shaped on day two.

75 Go with the flow
Accept the situation and do what others are doing.
There's no plan tonight, we'll just go with the flow.

76 The grass is always greener on the other side
Other people's situations always look better than yours.
She misses her old job, but the grass is always greener.

77 Green with envy
Extremely jealous.
I was green with envy when I heard.

78 A grey area
A situation where the rules are not clear.
Working from another country is a grey area.

79 Have a bee in your bonnet
Be obsessed with one particular idea.
She's got a bee in her bonnet about plastic.

80 Have a chip on your shoulder
Stay angry about something unfair that happened to you.
He's had a chip on his shoulder since they passed him over.

81 Have a lot on your plate
Have a lot of work or problems to deal with.
He has a lot on his plate this month.

82 Have a sweet tooth
Love sugary food.
I've got a terrible sweet tooth.

83 Have bigger fish to fry
Have more important things to deal with.
He won't mind, he's got bigger fish to fry.

84 Have green fingers
Be good at growing plants.
My gran had green fingers.

85 Have second thoughts
Start to doubt a decision you made.
I'm having second thoughts about the flat.

86 Have your head in the clouds
Dreaming instead of dealing with real life.
He's lovely, but his head is always in the clouds.

87 Head and shoulders above
Far better than all the rest.
Her essay was head and shoulders above the others.

88 Head over heels
Completely in love.
She fell head over heels for him.

89 A heart of gold
A very kind nature underneath everything else.
He grumbles all day, but he has a heart of gold.

90 Hit the ground running
Start something fast and well.
She hit the ground running in the new job.

91 Hit the nail on the head
Say exactly the right thing about a problem.
You've hit the nail on the head, it's a money problem.

92 Hit the road
Set off on a journey.
We hit the road at six.

93 Hit the roof
Lose your temper completely.
Dad hit the roof about the car.

94 Hit the sack
Go to bed.
Hit the sack early, we leave at six.

95 Hold your horses
Wait a moment, do not rush.
Hold your horses, let me finish.

96 The icing on the cake
A good extra on top of something already good.
Winning was the icing on the cake.

97 In the long run
Over a long period of time in the future.
In the long run, honesty is cheaper.

98 In the same boat
In the same difficult situation as someone else.
Don't worry, we're all in the same boat.

99 In two minds
Undecided about something.
She's in two minds about selling the flat.

100 It takes two to tango
Both people are responsible, not just one.
Don't blame her alone, it takes two to tango.

101 It's not rocket science
It is not difficult to understand.
Come on, it's not rocket science.

102 Jump on the bandwagon
Join something only because it has become popular.
Everyone jumped on the padel bandwagon last year.

103 Keep someone in the loop
Keep someone informed about what is happening.
She was good at keeping everyone in the loop.

104 Keep your finger on the pulse
Stay aware of what is happening.
He keeps his finger on the pulse of the industry.

105 Keep your head above water
Just manage to cope, usually with money or work.
Since the rent went up we have barely kept our heads above water.

106 Kick the bucket
Die, or stop working, said jokingly.
My phone kicked the bucket last night.

107 Kill two birds with one stone
Solve two problems with one action.
Walking there kills two birds with one stone.

108 The last straw
The final small thing you can take.
The broken promise was the last straw for her.

109 Learn the ropes
Learn how a job is done.
It took me a year to learn the ropes.

110 Leave no stone unturned
Try every possible thing.
The police left no stone unturned.

111 A leopard can't change its spots
People do not really change.
She's late again, a leopard can't change its spots.

112 Let sleeping dogs lie
Leave an old problem alone.
I decided to let sleeping dogs lie.

113 Let the cat out of the bag
Give away a secret by accident.
He let the cat out of the bag about the party.

114 Light at the end of the tunnel
The first sign that a hard time is ending.
After months of this, light at the end of the tunnel.

115 Make a pig's ear of something
Do it extremely badly.
I made a pig's ear of the painting.

116 Make ends meet
Earn just enough money to pay for what you need.
With two kids, they're struggling to make ends meet.

117 Make hay while the sun shines
Use the chance while you still have it.
Business is booming, so make hay while the sun shines.

118 Miss the boat
Lose a chance because you were too slow.
They missed the boat on the cheap tickets.

119 Move the goalposts
Change the rules or the target after the work has started.
Every time we finish something, they move the goalposts.

120 Move the needle
Make a noticeable difference to a result.
Nothing we tried moved the needle on sales.

121 Nine to five
The standard working day, and the routine that comes with it.
I'm not built for a nine-to-five.

122 No pain, no gain
You have to suffer a little to get results.
My legs are killing me, but no pain, no gain.

123 Not my cup of tea
Not something you enjoy.
Horror films are not my cup of tea.

124 Not the sharpest tool in the shed
Not very clever, said kindly.
Lovely lad, just not the sharpest tool in the shed.

125 Off the beaten track
Away from where everyone else goes.
We stayed somewhere off the beaten track.

126 Off the top of my head
Without checking or thinking carefully.
Off the top of my head, I'd say about forty people came.

127 On cloud nine
Extremely happy.
He was on cloud nine after the result.

128 On the back burner
Left aside to deal with later.
We've put the move on the back burner for now.

129 On the cards
Likely to happen.
Another price rise is on the cards.

130 On the same page
In agreement, understanding things the same way.
The two teams were finally on the same page.

131 On the tip of my tongue
You almost remember a word but can't quite say it.
The word was on the tip of her tongue all evening.

132 On thin ice
In a risky position where one more mistake brings trouble.
He has been on thin ice since the complaint.

133 Once in a blue moon
Very rarely.
He cooks once in a blue moon, and then it is beans on toast.

134 Open a can of worms
Start something that creates many new problems.
That question opened a real can of worms.

135 Out of sight, out of mind
You forget about things you cannot see.
Out of sight, out of mind works for my phone too.

136 Out of the blue
Suddenly and unexpectedly.
The email arrived completely out of the blue.

137 Out of the woods
Past the dangerous part at last.
Another month and we'll be out of the woods.

138 Over the hill
Past your best because of your age.
They told him he was over the hill at thirty-five.

139 Over the moon
Absolutely delighted.
She was over the moon with the result.

140 A pain in the neck
Something or someone annoying.
Parking round here is a pain in the neck.

141 Par for the course
Normal for this kind of situation.
Delays are par for the course here.

142 Pass with flying colours
Pass very easily and very well.
He got through the test with flying colours.

143 Pay through the nose
Pay far too much for something.
They pay through the nose for parking.

144 The penny dropped
The moment someone finally understood.
Halfway home the penny dropped.

145 Pick someone's brains
Ask someone for their knowledge.
I picked his brains about the move.

146 A piece of cake
Very easy.
For her, parallel parking is a piece of cake.

147 Play it by ear
Decide as you go, without a fixed plan.
Let's play it by ear and see who turns up.

148 Play with fire
Do something dangerously risky.
You're playing with fire talking to the press.

149 Play your cards right
Act cleverly and get what you want.
Play your cards right and the job is yours.

150 Plenty more fish in the sea
There are many other possible partners.
Forget him, plenty more fish in the sea.

151 Practice makes perfect
You improve at something by doing it repeatedly.
Keep speaking every day, practice makes perfect.

152 Practise what you preach
Do yourself what you tell others to do.
If you want them to read, practise what you preach.

153 Pull out all the stops
Make every possible effort.
They pulled out all the stops for the wedding.

154 Pull someone's leg
Joke with someone by telling them something untrue.
She was pulling your leg about the fine.

155 Pull your socks up
Start making a proper effort.
Pull your socks up or you'll fail.

156 Put your finger on it
Identify exactly what is wrong.
I can't put my finger on what's missing.

157 Put your foot down
Firmly refuse to allow something.
His mum put her foot down about the party.

158 Put your foot in it
Say something embarrassing or tactless by accident.
I asked about his wife, then really put my foot in it.

159 Raining cats and dogs
Raining extremely hard.
Take a coat, it's raining cats and dogs.

160 The rat race
The exhausting competition of ordinary working life.
He got out of the rat race at forty.

161 A recipe for disaster
Certain to go badly wrong.
Lending friends money is a recipe for disaster.

162 A red flag
A clear warning sign about a person or a situation.
Asking for the money upfront was a red flag.

163 A red herring
A detail that leads you away from the truth.
That whole detail was a red herring.

164 Red tape
Official rules and paperwork that slow everything down.
There's so much red tape involved in registering a company.

165 Ring a bell
Sound familiar.
Does the title ring a bell?

166 Rock the boat
Upset a situation that is working perfectly well.
She kept quiet rather than rock the boat.

167 Roll up your sleeves
Get ready to do hard work.
Everyone rolled up their sleeves and finished by six.

168 Rome wasn't built in a day
Good things take time.
Be patient, Rome wasn't built in a day.

169 The salt of the earth
Thoroughly decent, ordinary people.
Her neighbours are the salt of the earth.

170 Save for a rainy day
Keep money back for when you need it.
That's our rainy day money.

171 Saved by the bell
Rescued at the very last second.
The phone rang and I was saved by the bell.

172 A shot in the dark
A guess with nothing to go on.
It was a shot in the dark and it worked.

173 A shoulder to cry on
Someone who listens when you are upset.
He was a shoulder to cry on all that winter.

174 Sink or swim
Succeed or fail with nobody helping you.
They threw him in, sink or swim.

175 Sit on the fence
Unable to decide between two sides.
Half the class is on the fence about the trip.

176 A slip of the tongue
A small mistake in what you said.
It was a slip of the tongue, nothing more.

177 A slippery slope
A small bad step that leads to much worse things.
Lending him money is a slippery slope.

178 Sour grapes
Criticising what you failed to get.
That's just sour grapes because she got the part.

179 Speak of the devil
Said when the person you mentioned appears.
Speak of the devil, here she is.

180 Spill the beans
Tell a secret.
He spilled the beans about the surprise.

181 Stab someone in the back
Betray someone who trusted you.
She stabbed her own team in the back.

182 Steal someone's thunder
Take the attention that should have been theirs.
She announced it first and stole his thunder.

183 A steep learning curve
A situation where you have to learn a great deal very quickly.
Moving into management was a steep learning curve.

184 Stick to your guns
Refuse to change your opinion or decision.
They pushed him hard, but he stuck to his guns.

185 A stone's throw away
Very close by.
It's a stone's throw from the station.

186 A storm in a teacup
A lot of fuss about something unimportant.
The whole argument was a storm in a teacup.

187 Straight from the horse's mouth
From the person who actually knows.
I got it straight from the horse's mouth.

188 Take a rain check
Say no for now but yes another time.
I'll take a rain check on dinner, I'm exhausted.

189 Take it with a pinch of salt
Don't believe it completely.
He exaggerates, so take it with a pinch of salt.

190 Take the bull by the horns
Deal with a hard problem head on.
She took the bull by the horns and rang them.

191 Take the rough with the smooth
Accept the bad parts along with the good.
In this job you take the rough with the smooth.

192 There's no smoke without fire
Rumours usually have some truth in them.
I'd check it, there's no smoke without fire.

193 There's no use crying over spilt milk
There is no point being upset about something you can't change.
The car's sold now, no use crying over spilt milk.

194 Think outside the box
Think in a new and original way.
They want someone who can think outside the box.

195 A thorn in your side
A constant small annoyance.
The parking rules are a thorn in his side.

196 Through the grapevine
Heard unofficially, from other people.
I heard through the grapevine that she's leaving.

197 Through thick and thin
In good times and bad.
They have stayed together through thick and thin.

198 Throw in the towel
Give up.
Don't throw in the towel this close to the end.

199 Throw someone under the bus
Blame someone else to save yourself.
He threw his own team under the bus in the meeting.

200 Tick all the boxes
Meet every requirement.
On paper he ticks all the boxes.

201 Tie the knot
Get married.
They tied the knot in a tiny church.

202 Tighten your belt
Spend less because money is short.
Everyone is tightening their belts this year.

203 The tip of the iceberg
The small visible part of a much bigger problem.
Those complaints are just the tip of the iceberg.

204 Touch base
Make brief contact to check how things are going.
Let's touch base on Monday before the client call.

205 Touch wood
Said to avoid bad luck after talking about good luck.
Touch wood, the car has never let me down.

206 Turn a blind eye
Deliberately ignore something wrong.
They turn a blind eye to the parking.

207 Turn the other cheek
Refuse to answer an insult with another.
It's hard to turn the other cheek.

208 Twist someone's arm
Persuade someone who did not want to.
It didn't take much to twist his arm.

209 Under someone's thumb
Completely controlled by them.
He's been under his brother's thumb for years.

210 Under the weather
Slightly ill.
I'm a little under the weather today.

211 Until the cows come home
For a very long time indeed.
We could argue about this until the cows come home.

212 A vicious circle
A situation where each problem makes the next one worse.
Debt and overtime turned into a vicious circle.

213 A wake-up call
A shock that makes you change how you live or work.
The failed inspection was a wake-up call for the team.

214 Water off a duck's back
Criticism that does not affect you at all.
The reviews were water off a duck's back.

215 A wet blanket
Someone who spoils other people's fun.
Don't be a wet blanket, come and dance.

216 When in Rome, do as the Romans do
Follow the local customs when you are somewhere new.
They eat at ten here, so when in Rome, do as the Romans do.

217 When it rains, it pours
Bad things tend to happen all at once.
The boiler broke, then the car died. When it rains, it pours.

218 When pigs fly
Never going to happen.
They'll apologise when pigs fly.

219 When the cat's away, the mice will play
People misbehave when the boss is out.
Nothing got done, when the cat's away the mice will play.

220 A wild goose chase
A search that was never going to work.
The whole trip was a wild goose chase.

221 Word of mouth
News passed from person to person.
The shop filled up purely by word of mouth.

222 You can lead a horse to water
You cannot make someone take your help.
You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make it drink.

223 You can't have your cake and eat it
You can't have two good things that don't go together.
You want the money and the free time? You can't have your cake and eat it.

224 You reap what you sow
You get the results of your own actions.
He was rude to everyone for years, and you reap what you sow.

225 Your comfort zone
The situations you find easy because you already know them.
Nothing grows inside your comfort zone.

SIMILES 30

1 Like a broken record
Saying the same thing over and over.
I sound like a broken record, but please lock the door.

2 Like a bull in a china shop
Clumsy and careless with delicate things.
He came in like a bull in a china shop.

3 Like a deer in the headlights
Frozen, with no idea what to do.
When they asked him a question he looked like a deer in the headlights.

4 Like a fish out of water
Uncomfortable somewhere new or unfamiliar.
At my first rugby match I felt like a fish out of water.

5 As blind as a bat
Can hardly see anything.
Without my glasses I'm as blind as a bat.

6 As busy as a bee
Working non-stop.
He's been as busy as a bee since the baby arrived.

7 As clear as mud
Not clear at all.
His explanation was as clear as mud.

8 As cool as a cucumber
Completely calm when other people would panic.
She was as cool as a cucumber in the interview.

9 As dry as a bone
Completely dry.
The garden is as dry as a bone.

10 Eat like a horse
Eat a huge amount.
He's skinny, but he eats like a horse.

11 Fight like cat and dog
Argue constantly.
Those two fight like cat and dog, then go for coffee.

12 As fit as a fiddle
In excellent health.
At seventy he's still as fit as a fiddle.

13 Get on like a house on fire
Get along extremely well, straight away.
The two of them got on like a house on fire.

14 Go down like a lead balloon
Be received really badly.
My joke went down like a lead balloon.

15 As good as gold
Very well behaved.
He sat as good as gold through the concert.

16 Like herding cats
Impossible to organise.
Teaching them on a Friday is like herding cats.

17 As light as a feather
Weighing almost nothing.
Pick it up, it's as light as a feather.

18 As mad as a hatter
Completely crazy, in a harmless funny way.
Her uncle is as mad as a hatter and we love him for it.

19 As quiet as a mouse
Making no sound at all.
She sat as quiet as a mouse at the back.

20 As right as rain
Perfectly fine again after feeling bad.
A cup of tea and I'll be as right as rain.

21 Run around like a headless chicken
Rush about in a panic with no plan.
He spent the morning running around like a headless chicken.

22 As sick as a dog
Very ill indeed.
I was as sick as a dog all weekend.

23 Sleep like a log
Sleep deeply and never move.
I walked all day and slept like a log.

24 Spread like wildfire
Travel incredibly fast, usually news.
The rumour spread like wildfire.

25 As stubborn as a mule
Refusing to change your mind.
Don't argue with him, he's as stubborn as a mule.

26 Take to it like a duck to water
Learn it naturally and fast.
He took to teaching like a duck to water.

27 Like talking to a brick wall
A completely pointless conversation.
Asking him to listen is like talking to a brick wall.

28 Like two peas in a pod
Two people who are very alike.
Those two are like two peas in a pod.

29 Like watching paint dry
Unbelievably boring.
That meeting was like watching paint dry.

30 As white as a sheet
Pale with shock or fear.
She read the message and went as white as a sheet.